

CENTRAL FLORIDA ENGINEERING INTERNSHIP

THE NATIONAL CENTER FOR SIMULATION

The US Army Central Florida Engineering Internship is intended to be a practical approach for mentoring high school students in developing and incorporating processes needed for successful project development.

The conceptual tool-sets that are presented:

- Technical Evaluation
- Program Management
- Individual Development

Learn How to:

Solder Electronics

Program Arduino Microcontrollers

Build and launch Rockets

Design the Underwater SeaPerch ROV

It is FREE!

The Internship runs from:
June through July each year

For Students Grades 8-11

UCF Partnership III Bld Rm 233

Every Friday Mornings

9:00 AM to 1:00 PM

To apply for the internship – Please contact:

Mr. Abdul Siddiqui

Engineering Mentor

US Army PEO STRI - STEM Coordinator

Abdul.M.Siddiqui.CIV@mail.mil

www.CentralFloridaEngineeringInternship.com

