Distinguished Alumni Hall of Fame Nomination Form

The Warrior of Excellence Award was created by Aloha High School's National Honor Society in 2014. The award is granted annually to an alumnus who exhibits the four pillars of the National Honor Society. The alumnus chosen has attained notable professional achievement through commendable leadership. The chosen alumnus has gained knowledge through unique experience and scholarship. With their initiative, he or she have performed outstanding service to the community. We acknowledge his or her success gained through ambition and character. These traits allowed the recognized alumnus to inspire current and future students at Aloha High School to be a lifelong learner whose actions make a meaningful difference to others.

National Honor Society invites members of the community to nominate Aloha High School graduates, living or deceased, who meet the above criteria.
