Lower School Spanish Teacher

Full-time • 2019-20 School Year

We are seeking a talented, energetic, and creative individual to work with our team and develop a dynamic, engaging Spanish program for younger students.

Are you...

- A curious and creative teacher excited to bridge intellect and imagination in your classroom?
- A compassionate and collaborative educator and role model for students and adults?
- An enthusiastic community member eager to collaborate and build relationships?

Yes? Then read on!

Qualifications

- Demonstrated fluency with Spanish language.
- Bachelor's degree and teaching experience with elementary school aged students
- Willingness to help students develop language skills in both informal and formal settings
- Adept at collaborating to create cross-cultural connections within an existing curriculum
- Ability to incorporate dance, play, and movement. Experience with TPR (Total Physical Response) and TPRS (Teaching Proficiency through Reading and Storytelling) a plus.

Responsibilities

- Develop Spanish curriculum for students in grades K-3, including heritage speakers K-8.
- Provide students with opportunities to learn the Spanish language and culture of Spanish-speaking countries by participating in interactions that prepare them for real-world language use and global citizenship
- Collaborate with grade-level teams and World Languages teachers to design and implement curriculum informed by Universal Design for Learning practices and techniques

At San Francisco Day School...

We believe that when intellect and imagination are intertwined, our students delight in the discovery of connection: in their academic and creative pursuits, in their relationships, and in all that they experience here. Every day we help our students emerge as flexible and resourceful learners. Because when we do, our students light up with the call and capacity to take on the complexities of their day and of a diverse world.

SF Day At a Glance:
