- Course Levels: The expectations, standards and demands of courses vary and are thus assigned various levels of difficulty. Advanced Placement (A.P.) and Level 1 courses have a higher level of difficulty and require more hours of homework. Students enrolled in these courses must also meet specific prerequisites. It is advised that students and parents/guardians choose a course level that is most appropriate for the ability of the student. The level of a course will influence the calculation of the adjusted (weighted) Grade Point Average (AGPA). Students at CCHS are not ranked. Level 4 courses are not included in the AGPA calculation.

Level A.P.	Advanced Placement Course
Level 1	Honors College Prep Course
Level 2	Enriched College Prep Course
Level 3	Standard College Prep Course
