

THE ORATORY SCHOOLS FOUNDATION

REGISTERED CHARITY NUMBER 1071495

Established in 1971 by Sir James Comyn, Old Boy and Governor of the School, the Foundation has, over the last fifty years:

- Assisted over 20 boys to remain at the OS when parents have died.
- Provided two-year bursaries to more than 15 pupils through the Newman Sixth Form award.
- Helped to fund numerous gap year projects all over the world, which have been to benefit others.
- Provided additional facilities for the two schools, with a new organ and new pews for the OPS chapel and a reconditioned organ for the OS.

The Foundation receives donations and legacies but is primarily funded from investment income and the proceeds of the 200 Club. Please join this Club or give directly to the Foundation so that it can continue its good work for Oratorians past and present.
