The School Song

Thronging through the cloud-rift, whose are they, the faces
Faint revealed yet sure divin'd, the famous ones of old?
"What" - They smile - "Our names, our deeds, so soon erases
Time upon his tablet where life's glory lies enroll'd?"
Was it for mere fool's play, make-believe and mumming,
So we battled it like men, not boylike sulked or whined?
Each of us heard clang God's "Come!" and each was coming,
Soldiers all to forward face, not sneaks to lag behind.
How of the field's fortune? That concerned our leader.
Led, we struck our stroke nor cared for doings left and right.
Each, as on his sole head, failer or succeeder,
Lay the blame or lit the praise: no care for cowards: fight!
Then the cloud rift broadens, spanning earth that's under,
Wide our world displays its worth, man's strife and strife's success.
All the good and beauty, wonder crowning wonder,
Till my heart and soul applaud perfection, nothing less!
The Heroes. Robert Browning.
