Little School ages 3 to 5

Educational and recreational activities are designed to enrich and develop a child's social, intellectual and physical growth. Children will have a great time in this class. Each class will have an assistant, making the leader to child ratio even better. Children will participate in activities appropriate for their age level, like arts & crafts, story-time, nature study, safety, and creative movement. This class is designed for preschool children; those who have attended kindergarten are not eligible to register even if they fall within the age range. Ages as of September 1, 2019. Children must be toilet trained. Parents will take turns bringing snack. Program held at Jefferson Elementary School Room 108. Register by June 1. Instructor: Lisa Humble and Brianna Justen. No class July 1-4.
