The American Legion – Provides a unique opportunity for high school juniors from across the country to participate in a hands on exercise in government and democracy through the American Legion Boys State Program. The program provides the opportunity for students to spend a week on a college campus at no cost to them while learning leadership skills, seeing government in action and meeting and establishing friendships with like-minded students from all across the state. The Boys State Leadership Program will take place Saturday, June 22 – Thursday, June 27 at Eastern CT State University. Each boy should be sponsored by their local Legion post or another local organization or business. Delegates should be leaders who have some interest in the political process or government. If you have difficulty contacting a local post, please contact Department Headquarters at 860-436-9986 or Admin@ctlegion.necoxmail.com . Application can be found at <http://www.ctlegion.org/program-forms.html>
