

Travel Directions from Newark Airport to Hyatt Regency Princeton

NJ Transit train from Newark Airport to Princeton Junction

From the terminals at Newark there is a free "AirTrain" monorail that goes to the Rail-link station. There, you buy a NJ Transit ticket to Princeton Junction, and look for track number. (Make sure to take the NJ Transit NEC Corridor line south to Trenton). A train arrives every 30-40 minutes during peak times. Service is unavailable from 1:45 AM-4:45 AM.

Find NJ Transit train schedules at www.njtransit.com

*Hyatt Regency Princeton offers a complimentary shuttle based upon availability for non-residential transportation within 5 miles of the hotel. Shuttle fits up to 14 people. If you would like to use this service for transportation from the train station to the hotel, contact the hotel directly with adequate advance of your travel date at (609) 987-1234.

Driving Directions from Newark Airport to Princeton Junction

- Get on US-1 South/US-9 South from Newark International Airport Street.
- Take I-95 South and US-1 South to Alexander Road in West Windsor Township. Take the Alexander Road E exit from US-1 South.
- From Alexander Road, turn right onto Carnegie Center Drive, destination will be on the right.

*Detailed driving directions: <https://goo.gl/maps/QwFssDihTVP2>

