

Charter
Advanced Placement Council
December 18, 2017

Purpose

The purpose of the AP Council is to advocate for and represent AP teachers and students within the Mansfield ISD.

Responsibilities of the Committee

This committee represents individual campus AP teachers. These teachers bring campus concerns forward and make suggestions to improve the AP program within MISD. Teresa Francis is the non-voting chair of the committee. Melanie Beckett is the non-voting secretary of the committee. This standing committee recommend improvements of the AP program.

AD HOC Committees

There are 4 ad hoc committees that are formed to research and recommend to the AP Council as a whole. Committee focus is determined through collaborative decision making. Committee focus for 2017-18 includes:

- Lettering in AP
- Standards- Writing Rubrics
- Mentor Teachers
- AP Celebrations

Duration of Committee and/or Timeline

AP Council meets three times annually - once during the fall semester and twice during the spring. Additionally, the Council organizes and hosts an annual AP Conference for all Pre-AP and AP teachers in grades 7-12.
