100+ Middle School Students Attend St Joseph High School Football Clinic, Hosted by SJ Alum and Pittsburgh Steeler Tyler Matakevich '11

July 9, 2018—TRUMBULL, CT—St Joseph High School, striving to be southern Connecticut's premier college preparatory school, hosted a football clinic for students in grades 5-8 on Saturday, July 7. The clinic featured St Joes alum, Tyler Matakevich '11, alongside his Pittsburgh Steeler teammate, Sean Davis.

The clinic was offered free of charge and more than 100 students from twenty cities participated. Throughout the day, students moved through a rigorous warm up before breaking into six groups; students then rotated through various skills instruction, focusing on football-specific agility and coordination drills.

“Tyler ran his first football clinic as a professional athlete,” remarked St Joe's Head Football Coach, Joe DellaVecchia, “We had tremendous support from our Touchdown club who came out to help and our coaching staff and current players who also pitched in. It was a huge success and we look forward to having Tyler back and helping him have this clinic grow each year.”

St Joseph High School is grateful to all those who participated in the day's success, including SJ Alums and football players: Cam Ryan '16, Steve Hasemi '14, Pete Pulaski '07, Joe DellaVecchia '11, Nick Adzima '11, and current student Jared Mallozzi '18.
