

Variety Day Camp at Temple

Variety is very excited to extend our programmatic offerings by opening a satellite day camp on Temple University's campus! The camp will run for two weeks (July 8th-12th and July 15th-19th) at 1700 N. Broad St. in Philadelphia from 9am to 3pm (see schedule below). This provides a much needed service for many individuals who can't access our Worcester campus. Temple University will help us continue to provide recreational programming to the Philadelphia area through activities such drama, music, arts and crafts, science and technology, music, dance, nature, cooking and more! Variety will continue to utilize a 1:2 staffing ratio and nursing. Registration for this program is now open! We accept Waiver Funding, Madeline Moore Grants and County Based Funding. If you need assistance funding camp, please let us know and we will do our best to connect you with resources.
