Senior Class Trip

The Senior Class Trip started on March 21, 2002. The senior class and the chaperones: Mr. and Mrs. Paulson, Mr. and Mrs. Gladis, Mr. and Mrs. Duxbury, and Mrs. Kullot left at 8:00 a.m. At the Minneapolis airport the plane was delayed and so they missed the connecting flight in Atlanta, Georgia. The seniors finally arrived in Orlando at midnight. Besides this mishap the trip was a blast. The Magic Kingdom, Epcot, Animal Kingdom, and MGM Studios were all equally fun. The Tower of Terror, Rock 'N' Roller Coaster, Space Mountain, Splash Mountain, Honey I Shrunk the Audience, and It's A Small World were some of the favorites. On Saturday, March 23, while at the Animal Kingdom the class took a Backstage Safari where they learned how the animals were taken care of. Then whole class went to Universal Studios. It was a great change from Disney World, but there was more to do then what you could accomplish in one day. On Monday all the seniors and chaperones were all very sad to leave the "The Magical World of Disney."

HOMECOMING

This year's Homecoming took place throughout the week of October 1-6. Monday night was coronation and the theme this year was an award show. In the end Danica Finseth was crowned queen and Adam Eickhoff was crowned king. The parade took place on Friday afternoon and the winner of the float was the 10th grade with the slogan, "Chatfield Bulldog Pound." Friday night the football team defeated the Plainview-Elgin-Millville Bulldogs. It was a close game, but victorious. Saturday night was the last night of fun for the Homecoming week ending with the dance. It sure was a fun week with all the activities that went on.

Snow Week

Snow week kicked off with a night coronation on Monday, February 11, 2002. During the coronation, representatives from all clubs played, "The Weakest Link". There were also skits preformed by the FFA and FCCLA members to name Kelly Schroeder and Katie Undeberg King and Queen for the week. The other activities that took place during the week included: Snow Sculptures, Hall Decorations, Tug of War and the "Bleacher Creature" which was hidden during the week for people to find. There were several dress-up days throughout the week also, Monday was Disney Day, Tuesday was Summer Fun Day, Wednesday was Class Color Day, Thursday was Valentine's Day, and Friday was Blue and White Day. The week ended with the annual SnowBall Dance on Friday, February 15, sponsored by the FFA and the FCCLA.

Above: Are we under the sea or in Chatfield? The sophomores made a giant fish for the snow sculptures. Below: The juniors sculpted a castle out of their snow pile.

Prom 2002

You Look Wonderful Tonight

Prom 2002 took place on Saturday, May 11th, in the high school gym, with the Grand March starting at 8:00 p.m. This year the junior class did a wonderful job with the gym. It looked beautiful with a large white castle and a fountain. The Master of Ceremonies for the night was Mr. Jim Gladis. Seniors Alex Timm and Justin Cyphers preformed Eric Clapton's song "You Look Wonderful Tonight" to get the night going. There was a lot of fun and socializing at the dance. To complete the night, as always, the post prom party was at the golf course. Games were played, prizes were won, and fun was had by all.

You're Special

In this world there are a few people who are really special. They go around caring for others before themselves. They have a smile on their face and love in their heart for everyone. They ask for nothing in return. We saw all of this and more in you. We will always love and remember you, Jared.

Our season was one of the streaks. A slow start was followed by a strong record over the winter break, and, unfortunately, followed by a prolonged losing streak to end the season. However, close games against St. Charles, Dover Eyota, and Rushford in the last three games showed the willingness of the team to work hard even when the chips were down.

The 2001-2002 season was another year of what ifs. The team was competitive and in every game to the end except 3 of them and even those 3 were not decided until the second half. They fought and played hard all year but could not get over the hump. We just did not play well consistently. The highlight of the year was taking Elgin- Millville, the 2nd ranked team in the state, down to the wire. This year's team was lead by seniors Danica Finseth, Rebekah Saunders, Katie Undeberg, Kristi Bren, Winter Shaler, and Cassie Rodgers.

The 2001-2002 wrestling season turned out to be a building year for the Chatfield Gophers. Forty one wrestlers took to the mat, with thirty one of these being in seventh, eighth, and ninth grade. This fact, coupled with the tragic loss of our 145 pounder, Jared Hammell, made for a season filled with struggles. Highlights of the season were winning the Wolfpack Duals in Cottage Grove, watching the young B-squad team get better week after week, Ryan Priebe taking 1st place in the section, and Priebe's 2nd place finish at the state wrestling tournament. With the large numbers in the 7th-9th grade, next year may also be a building year with the team being very competitive by the 2003-2004 season.

Band and Choir Trip

The 2002 band and choir trip started on Thursday May 25. The first stop on our trip was in Tomah High School in Tomah Wisconsin. There the band and the choir preformed for the music students at the high school. After that we were on our way to Chicago again. We arrived at the hotel early and had plenty of time to swim or hang out in the hotel that night. The next day was a busy day. We had to board the busses really early and go to the National Louis University for the music festival. After running late we finished with the festival and split up. Some people went to the Chicago Cubs game, where they lost to the Los Angeles Dodgers 10-0. The other part of the group went to the Art Institute of Chicago and Navy Pier. The groups all got together for a meal at Hard Rock Cafe and some shopping. On Saturday May 27, the entire group went to the Museum of Science and Industry. This was a lot of fun. There was several things to do there, including virtual reality exhibits and a karaoke exhibit. After the museum, we attended a dolphin presentation at the John G. Shedd Aquarium and Oceanarium. There we learned how scientists identify dolphins. When we were finished at the aquarium, we went downtown to go shopping at the Magnificent Mile, Nike Town and the Water Tower Place. Dinner that night was at Portello's Restaunta'. And after dinner it was time to have some fun. There was a dance and awards ceremony for all the people involved in the music festival. There the concert band and concert choir received second place. After the dance it was back to the hotel for a late night and the next morning we headed for home.

YOUR BEST STOP FOR EVERYTHING TO RENT

It's wonderful to know that our daughter has succeeded in part of her life's journey. Our hopes and prayers are that along the way you bring as much joy to others as you have brought to us. We pray your continuing journey be free of difficulties. If challenges arise you should be confident that the knowledge and wisdom we tried to instill, will help you through successfully. "May you live long and prosper." Love, Dad and Naomi
