

Middle School/Upper School Social Science Instructor

Canterbury School of Florida is seeking an experienced and dedicated Middle/Upper School Social Science Instructor to teach a rigorous social science curriculum including Advanced Placement courses. This instructor will collaborate closely with the social science faculty. This candidate will also implement LEADS (Canterbury's character education program) through advisory and will be expected to perform various duties that support the Knowlton Campus.

In addition, this teacher will have a commitment to the School's mission and an interest in community involvement through participation in school-wide committees and activities. It is expected that each faculty member contributes to a positive culture by building collaborative, collegial, and respectful relationships with colleagues and overtly supporting fellow teachers and administrators.

Requirements:

- Bachelor Degree required; Master's Degree preferred
- Minimum 2 years of teaching experience
- Understanding of the cognitive and developmental needs of children
- Experience with project-based and hands-on learning
- Clear understanding of differentiated instruction
- Excellent communication skills, both oral and written
- Proficient at designing and using assessments to guide instruction
- Commitment to professional development
- Proficient in educational technology
- Ability to coordinate across the curriculum

Interested applicants should send a letter of interest and resume to Donnamarie Hehn, Upper School Principal at dhehn@canterburyflorida.org.
