

Aloha High School Summer 2019 Registration Form 8.5

Dear Parents & Guardians,

Aloha High School's "Summer 8.5" program is focused specifically on skill development, leadership, and college/career readiness. A standards-based curriculum will be delivered to develop skills in math, reading, writing, physics, and leadership. Students who attend "Summer 8.5" will earn 1.0 elective credit. Breakfast and lunch will be provided, and passes for public transportation can also be arranged upon request. We are excited to work with you and your student, and hope to provide a unique and enriching Warrior experience with a top-notch teaching team, innovative instruction, and a positive and engaging summer school environment.

Please note that this year due to building construction the Aloha Summer program will be housed at Mountain View Middle School: 17500 SW Farmington Rd. Beaverton, OR 97007

Sincerely,
Adina Lepp & Michelle Riley
