Minooka CCSD 201 Vision Statement:

Personal success and well-being will be evidenced when learners are:

- Responsible and accountable for their own learning and demonstrate readiness for the next level of learning.
- Provided with supports and opportunities to develop skills, attitudes, and behaviors that lead to strong character, well-being, citizenship, and future workplace success.
- Committed to extend their learning beyond the classroom by connecting, creating, communicating, collaborating, and problem solving.
- Guided by effective educators who engage and challenge learners through innovative, real world applications and see collaboration as fundamental to teaching and learning.
- Supported by families and a community who are actively engaged as advocates for individual and collective educational excellence.
- Provided with appropriate and equitable resources necessary to reach their potential.
