2019-2020 FAFSA Signature Page

Section A. Signature Page Information

If you choose not to sign the FAFSA electronically, then you (and at least one parent if you are a dependent) must sign this signature page. For Renewal FAFSA on the Web and Correction on the Web, a signature page is required for your parent only if your parental information is provided or altered.

Once you sign the signature page, return it to Student Financial Services. By signing the signature page, you agree, if asked, to provide information that verifies the accuracy of your completed FAFSA. This information may include a copy of your U.S. or state income tax form. Do not mail income tax forms with the signature page.

By signing the signature page, you also certify that:

- You will use federal student aid funds received during the award year covered by this application solely for educational expenses related to attendance during that year at the institution of higher education that determined eligibility for those funds;
- You are not in default on a Title IV educational loan, or have repaid or made satisfactory arrangements to repay the loan if you are in default;
- You do not owe an overpayment on a Title IV educational grant, or you have made satisfactory arrangements to repay that overpayment;
- You will notify your school if you do owe an overpayment or are in default; and
- You understand that the Secretary of Education has the authority to verify income reported on this application with the Internal Revenue Service and other federal agencies

If you purposely give false or misleading information, you may be fined $20,000, sent to prison, or both.
