On your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), you indicated that you or a member of the household participated in the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) – formally known as Food Stamps – during 2018 and/or 2019. As part of the verification process, you must confirm that you received this benefit.

This form is to be completed by the student if any member of his/her household received SNAP benefits in 2018.

SNAP Benefit Verification

The parents certify that _____, a member of the parents' household, received benefits from the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program or SNAP (formerly known as the Food Stamp Program) sometime during 2018 or 2019. SNAP may be known by another name in some states. For assistance in determining the name used in a state, please call 1-800-4FED-AID (1-800-433- 3243).

The students household includes:

- The student and spouse if married.
- The students children if he/she provided more than half of their support from July 1, 2019, through June 30, 2020.
- Other people if they now live with the student and provide more than half of their support and will continue to provide more than half of their support through June 30, 2020.

Note: If we have reason to believe that the information regarding the receipt of SNAP benefits is inaccurate, we may require documentation from the agency that issued the SNAP benefits in 2018 or 2019.
