

Baldwin High School 2019 Summer Volleyball Camp

June 17-20

Grades 3-7 9am – 12pm

Grades 8-9 1pm – 4pm

Join the Baldwin Girls' Volleyball Team for this four day boys and girls camp that will be full of skill development, game like play and fun!

For the newest players, this camp will be the perfect introduction to the skills needed to play the game. In a fun and supportive environment, campers will develop the foundations important to building their game. For the more experienced player, this camp will be the perfect place to grow their skills with maximum repetitions, small groups and game strategy to prepare them for their upcoming season. Continuous feedback from knowledgeable coaches will be given to all players.

Participation in the camp includes daily instruction, coaches' feedback, a camp T-shirt and a mini tournament on the last day. Players should come dressed appropriately for physical activity. Kneepads are encouraged but not required.

- Due to construction at Baldwin High School, camp this year will be held at Paynter Elementary School – 3454 Pleasantvue Drive, Pittsburgh, PA 15227
- For campers entering grades 3-8 the registration fee is $100.
- For campers entering 9th grade in the fall there is no registration fee.

Camp directors include Baldwin High School Girls' Varsity Coach, Chris Kelly and Marsha Green, club and youth volleyball coach with more than 20 years experience. Additional staff includes Baldwin High School Girls' JV coach, Jenna Snyder and members of the Baldwin Girls Varsity team.
