

Summer 2019

Dear Soon to be Third Graders,

A requirement of all incoming third graders is to read during the summer. The attached list contains some suggestions of great series/authors for your summer reading. However, you are not limited to this list. You may read any book that interests you. On page 3 of this packet is a list of books that are read as a class in 3rd Grade. Please do not read these books.

You need to read enough books to make at least 10 points during the summer.

- Only 2 books may be read from the same series or author.
- Only books worth 5 points or less may be counted toward summer reading. The purpose of this point restriction is to encourage you to read many good books during the summer.

Included in this packet are:

- List of suggested series/authors
- Your Official Summer Reading Record. Please write down the title, author, and point value of each book you read.

The point value can be determined by going to the website: www.arbookfind.com and typing in the title of your book. This website will also give information about the level of the books you choose.

- A list of books read in 3rd Grade as a class.

Remember to have your parents initial your Summer Reading Record. When school starts in August, bring it to us. Your Summer Reading Record is due the second day of school.

You are required to make 10 points, but if you read more you will earn a medal.
