SCHOOL AND COMMUNITY

Korea International School (KIS) is a private, non-profit, nonsectarian school offering an American college preparatory curriculum. KIS was established in 2000 and is located in a modern, state-of-the-art facility in the rapidly growing southern Seoul suburb of Pangyo. Enrollment is selective.

The majority of KIS students are fluent in both English and another language. Fifteen nationalities are represented in the high school student body.

● KOREAN
 ● U.S.A.
 ● OTHER NATIONALITY

★ ENGLISH IS THE LANGUAGE OF INSTRUCTION

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of KIS is to inspire students with a passion for learning and to cultivate the competence, self-assurance, initiative, and creativity necessary for success in the global community.

CO-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES AND ATHLETICS

Strong participation is a hallmark of KIS students. Students participate in more than 80 student led clubs including: Habitat for Humanity, Model United Nations, National Honor Society, Sustainable Service Volunteer Committee, Tri- M Music Honor Society and the Global Issues Network. All students participate in Experiential Education programs.

Student athletes participate in the following competitive varsity sports: volleyball, cross country, tennis, soccer, basketball, swimming, and cheerleading.

SCHOOL CALENDAR

The school year includes 181 days and is divided into two 18 week-long semesters. The typical course load is 7 courses each semester. The school day is comprised of four 80 minute classes that meet on an alternating day schedule.

KIS will support up to 10 college applications and counsels its students to use this allowance deliberately and wisely. Students may appeal to submit up to 2 additional applications. The class of 2018 submitted an average of nine applications per student.

In observance of NACAC best practices, when asked, KIS will, through established reporting structures, disclose to colleges disciplinary infractions that result in out of school suspensions.
