

St. Stephen's Episcopal Day School seeks contemporary early childhood teachers to become members of our dynamic team. The school's four focal points are to Spark Creativity, Ignite Learning, Explore Passions, and Empower Leaders to create the best possible learning environment for its students. If you are interested in teaching in an environment that welcomes risk-taking and an innovator's mindset, apply today.