

Palm Beach Day Academy, established in 1921, is an independent, coeducational school, serving 420 students from age 2 to Grade 9, on two campuses. The Lower School, which houses students age two years old – Grade 3, seeks a talented and energetic Lower School teacher to begin August 2019. Current job openings exist in the Lower School.

The successful candidate will plan and implement the curriculum using a variety of teaching approaches with a team model. Flexibility, creativity, a sense of humor, strong work ethic and a commitment to being a strong team member are all critically important. Knowledge in Readers-Writers Workshop is essential. A strong math background and willingness to incorporate STEAM and Literacy in the classroom is also necessary.

All applicants should have a Bachelor's degree in Elementary Education. A minimum of five years of teaching experience at the Elementary level is preferred, excellent written and verbal communication skills, as well as knowledge with integrating technology into the curriculum.

Please email a cover letter, resume, and at least two references to Martha Bjorklund, Head of Lower School, at mbjorklund@pbdays.org.
