Building our future together

Though some days in recent weeks have been cold enough to bring the entire region to a standstill, the year in its entirety has been an exciting one with all of the related hustle and bustle.

A major initiative being undertaken by White Bear Lake Area Schools this year is a facilities planning process that kicked off in the fall of 2018. The district's projected enrollment growth and our visionary Strategic Plan underscore the need for a review of the district's buildings and learning environments. Ninety community members were chosen from a larger applicant pool to be members of the Facility Planning Committee, which has met numerous times to study the district's facilities from the lenses of learning spaces, community spaces, and physical conditions.

An important element of the facilities planning process is a community survey that was conducted in December, with results presented to the School Board in January. The community opinions shared with us through this survey will help us continue to best serve our families and communities in the years to come.

Building our future together

This key overall feedback of the study included the finding that 90% of those surveyed rated the quality of the district as good or excellent. The most liked elements and highest rated characteristics of the district were the quality of our teachers, academic achievement, the variety of programs offered, and our broad curriculum. The high rating of the district's academics really stood out, as did the rating of the district's athletic programs and our music, theater and arts offerings.

Community members responded with very positive perceptions of the district. For example, there was a high level of agreement with a survey item related to the district providing a safe learning environment, being a good value for investment, being trusted to do the right thing, and being accountable.

Specific to the classroom, more than three-quarters of the respondents placed importance on students having input and choice in learning. Ninety-five percent of those surveyed placed importance on students being able to work together. More than 80% of respondents placed importance on the flexibility of learning spaces and classrooms designed to student learning. Our community understands the importance of student agency, one of the core components to the district's Strategic Plan that was approved by the School Board in the spring of 2018.

Those who are interested in seeing the entire 2018 Residential Survey results presentation can find the file in the Facility Planning Committee Meeting #8 Materials section of the Facilities Planning Process page of the district website, at www.isd624.org/about/Facilities-Planning.asp. This website will continue to host materials for the Facilities Planning Committee conversations, so we encourage you to visit the site to learn more about the discussions that have taken place.

The conversations that are taking place within the committee are thorough and thoughtful. A major strength to the process is the variety of viewpoints represented around the table at each of the meetings, which has led to meaningful discussions. Our committee members have taken their task seriously, reflecting on the facilities options and gathering input from their constituent groups and communities. The questions that have been asked of our planning team and administration have been many, which is an important part of the process. Each time the questions are asked, the answers that are reached help define and refine the district's plan and purpose in this initiative.

After continuing to study the options in a Solutions Subcommittee and within the larger 90-member group, the Planning Committee will present a recommendation to the School Board that is scheduled as an agenda item at the April 22 Work-Study meeting. The recommendation will be based on capacity, current enrollment, projected enrollment, educational needs of the School District, alignment with the District's Strategic Vision, community recreation, special programs, school security, and financial stewardship.

The district will continue to solicit community engagement and feedback in the Facilities Planning Process, including the facilitation of a community survey that will be mailed to each residence in the district and be available in an online format. Please look for that survey to be coming, and please engage in the process and provide input. The feedback received from community members will be an important part of helping us to shape the plan moving forward as we work together to build the future of our growing school district.

Site-level strategic planning

Following the district's Strategic Planning process that took place during the 2017-18 school year, school sites and programs have participated in site-level processes during the 2018-19 school year.

Each site hosted a planning team made up of staff members, parents and community members. The groups formulated building-specific tactics and objectives that complement the district's Strategic Plan.

The plans were presented to School Board liaisons at the January Work-Study Meeting, with materials available on the School Board Meetings page of the district website, www.isd624.org/about/School-Board.asp.

Community Partner Event

The district's Transition Education Center welcomed community partners and guests to its 9th annual Community Partner Event in February.

The event provided students with an opportunity to say "thank you" to community partners that have opened their doors to give students the chance to learn valuable employability skills. The program allowed students to showcase their skills and express their gratitude to community businesses.

"The Community Partner Event not only recognizes our partnerships with area businesses, but it also showcases the dedication of our work coordinators and job coaches. Most importantly it emphasizes our students' abilities to contribute to our workforce," said Transition Education Center Coordinator Sara Derby.

The White Bear Lake Area Schools Transition Education Center is a specialized learning center that is home to four programs tailored to students with unique educational needs:

- Transition Plus is a program for young adults with special needs, typically between the ages of 18-21.
- The Transition and Post-Secondary Preparation program provides an opportunity for young adults with special needs to progress toward graduation at an individualized pace based on their Individual Education Program (IEP).
- Project Search is a business-led high school transition model that provides students with disabilities meaningful job skills through systematic instruction and three internship opportunities in preparation for competitive employment.
- TEC also houses Accountability with Academics and Restorative Education (AWARE), an alternative to dismissal program and/or provides alternative education services for White Bear Lake Area School District students in grades 6-12.
