

TAX PRIMER FOR PARENTS

COMPLETING A 2018-19 PFS

Use this primer to get an understanding of which few tax forms will be most helpful to you as you complete your PFS.

This primer doesn't provide an overview of every possible tax form you might receive or need to file with IRS. Instead, it focuses on just four forms families will need to have on hand to complete the PFS accurately and correctly, as well one form that schools might ask you to submit. The forms this primer covers are:

- Form W2
- Form 1040
- Schedule C
- Form 1099-MISC
- Form 4506-T

For each of these forms, the primer will answer three questions:

1. What is the form used for?
2. What does the form look like?
3. Which lines on this form matter most for completing the PFS?

Important Note

Be sure to send all of your tax forms as required by each school you're applying to. Do not limit what you submit to schools to the few documents covered in this primer. If a school requires your tax forms and schedules, be sure to send or upload the full set of tax forms that you submit to the IRS when filing your tax return. Doing so ensures that you complete the schools' document requirements correctly, avoiding possible delays in the process.

The W-2 is an annual statement of your earnings for the calendar year, provided by your employer. It also displays how much was withheld from your pay for taxes, Social Security, and Medicare. This is where you can also see how much of your income was put into certain types of pre-tax retirement plans.

Which Lines Matter for the PFS?

Report the salary in Box 1 of your W2 on line 7A of the PFS for the parent listed as "Parent A." Use 7B for the parent listed as "Parent B."

Look at Box 12. If any amounts appear in this section with a code D-H, be sure to report that amount as "Payments to tax-deferred retirement plans" in PFS line 8D of the Nontaxable Income Worksheet. You do not have to report any other information from the W2 on the PFS.

It is possible that one or more schools you're applying to might ask you to supply other information from the W2.

You'll most likely be required to submit or upload a copy of each W2 you receive as part of your financial aid application.

Form 1040

What Is It For?

The 1040 is used to report your sources of incomes, as well as any adjustments, deductions, and credits against your income that will determine how much and what types of federal taxes you should have paid for the tax year. If you've paid too much in taxes, it will show how much of a refund from the federal government you are entitled to receive. If you've paid too little in taxes, it will show how much more you need to pay.

Related forms are:

- 1040A (used by taxpayers with $100,000 of income or less who don't own businesses and don't claim itemized deductions)
- 1040EZ (used by filers with no dependents and no itemized deductions, and with income under $100,000 all of which was earned as wages, salaries, and tips)

What Does the Form 1040 Look Like?

The 1040 is a two-page document comprised of several sections. Let's look at the form in sections:

Which Lines Matter for the PFS?

Be sure your tax filing status on PFS Line 6B matches what is checked off on boxes 1-5 on your 1040. An incorrect choice on the PFS can cause a miscalculation of the credit you receive for federal income taxes you pay.

When listing your dependents on the PFS, make sure it is consistent with those listed on your 1040 in Line 6C. If you support children or others in your household that you cannot claim as a dependent, be sure to list them and explain their relationship to you in the PFS "Other Considerations" section.

PFS Line 6C asks about exemptions you claim. Be sure it matches with exemptions claimed on Line 6D of your 1040. An incorrect entry on the PFS can cause a miscalculation of the credit you receive for federal income taxes you pay.

Which Lines Matter for the PFS?

As you can see, each line of the 1040's Income section has a corresponding line on the PFS where the income information should be reported. Most are straightforward one-to-one matches. However, a few lines warrant a little more guidance:

1040 Line 7: Salary/Wages

The salary and wages reported here are a total of salaries earned by the parents in the household. The PFS asks you to report each parent's salary separately, so you won't see a single line item on the PFS for the total salaries. Be sure though, that the total of the salaries you enter in line 7A and 7B for each parent is the same as the total shown on Line 7 of your 1040.

TAX PRIMER FOR PARENTS

COMPLETING A 2018-19 PFS

1040 Line 12: Business income or (loss)

This refers specifically to income or loss you had from a Sole Proprietorship, for which you also completed a Schedule C. On Line 19 of the PFS, the total of the net profit or loss from each Schedule C business you own should equal the amount shown on your 1040 Line 12. Be sure to send or upload each Schedule C you file, if you have income or a loss listed on your 1040 Line 12.

1040 Lines 15a, 16a, and 20a: Distributions from IRA, Pensions, and Social Security

1040 Lines 15a, 16a, and 20a each show the total income you received from IRA, Pensions, and Social Security. Lines 15b, 16b, and 20b show the portion of that total that was taxable. Each has a specific PFS line for reporting the taxable portion.

To report the nontaxable portion correctly, take the difference and report it in the appropriate PFS line item in the Nontaxable Income section.

Report your nontaxable IRA and Pension income in PFS Line 8M.

Report your nontaxable Social Security benefits in PFS Line 8B.

1040 Line 17: Rental Real Estate, royalties, partnerships, S corporations, trusts, etc.

This line can be complicated, depending on what type of income is included here, since many different types of income reportable on your 1040 Line 17.

If any income reported on Line 17 is from rental property, trusts, or royalties, report it on Line 7Q of your PFS.

If any income reported on Line 17 is from S corporations or Partnerships that you share ownership in, report it on Line 19 of your PFS, in the section that asks you to detail the income and expenses of the business.

Be sure to send or upload each Schedule E you file, if you have income or loss listed on your 1040 Line 17.

While there are many items in this section of the 1040, only one line is relevant when completing your PFS. The amount on Line 40, your itemized deductions, should be reported on PFS Line 6E. If you did not itemize your deductions, you can enter zero on the PFS for this question. No other questions on the PFS ask about any amounts in this section of the 1040.

If your itemized deductions include medical and/or dental expenses, look at your Schedule A, Line 1. You can report the total medical and dental expenses shown there in PFS Line 14A.

Please note that you can still report your medical and dental expenses on PFS Line 14A even if you did not itemize them on a Schedule A (see example below):

Which Lines Matter for the PFS?

1040 Line 57 shows the total amount of self-employment taxes you paid for your business(es). These should also be report on Line 17J on the PFS. Note that the PFS will ask you how much self-employment tax you paid for each business separately. The total of all of those self-employment tax amounts should be equal to what's reported here on the 1040 Line 57.

1040 Line 63 shows what you owe for the different types of federal taxes on your income. PFS Line 6F asks you to report your federal taxes paid. Be sure to report the amount shown on 1040 Line 63. But if you also have Self-Employment taxes, do not include those in PFS Line 6F, since you have to report those separately for each business. Instead, for PFS Line 6F, report the total tax on Line 63 MINUS any Self-Employment tax on Line 57.

Earned income credits shown on 1040 Line 66a are considered non-taxable income and should be reported on PFS Line 8I.

1040 Section: Refund, Amount You Owe, Third Party Designee, Signatures

There is no information provided in these final areas of the 1040 that is also asked for on the PFS.

Schedule C

What Is The Schedule C For?

The Schedule C is used for reporting specific details about each business you own for which you are the sole proprietor. It shows the name, location, and type of business. It details the total, gross income you received for the business. It itemizes the allowable expenses of the business that can be written off against the business's income to ultimately show what your net profit or loss was on the business. The net profit or loss is then entered on your Form 1040 on Line 12. When you submit your 1040 to the IRS, you are required to attach/include a Schedule C for each sole proprietorship you own.

Look at Line 13. If you are writing off any depreciation or “section 179 expense,” you will see an entry here. PFS Line 17F asks you to report this amount. If you claim depreciation, you will likely also file a Form 4562. If you have a 4562, be sure to send or upload that with your tax forms. Doing so allows the school to clarify how much of the amount on Line 13 is actually depreciation and not “section 179 expense.” This is to your advantage, typically.

Look at Line 26. If you paid wages to employees for your business (as reported on W2’s that you filed for them), the PFS will ask you to separate out any wages you paid for yourself or your spouse from wages you paid to others.

If Schedule C Line 26 includes wages for yourself and/or your spouse, report the amount you paid to yourself and/or your spouse on PFS Line 17A. Only report this amount if you provided a W2 as documentation of those earnings. Do NOT report your net profit as your salary.

If Schedule C Line 26 includes wages paid for anyone other than yourself or your spouse, report the amount that went to other employees on PFS Line 17B.

By definition, a sole proprietorship doesn't share the profit or loss of the business with any other person or entity. Report the amount on Schedule C Line 31 on PFS Line 17L to reflect your share of the total business profit or loss (in other words, the amount that belongs to you).

Note that you will have to complete a separate section on expenses and net profit for each sole proprietorship that you own.

Form 1099-MISC

What Is Form 1099-MISC For?

The Form 1099-MISC is provided to you by a person or firm for whom you performed work or service by hiring yourself out as a freelancer, contractor, or the like. 1099s can also show other types of income such as royalties, commissions or rents. Basically, it shows income you earned that wasn't provided to you as someone else's employee or from your investments.

Other types of 1099s you might receive:

- 1099-DIV (which reports income from dividends, distributions, and capital gains from investments accounts such as stocks, bonds, and mutual funds)
- 1099-INT (which tracks interest income you earned from investments such as savings accounts).

Which Lines Matter for the PFS?

Income reported on your 1099s should already be included in certain lines of your 1040. On the PFS, any income reported on a 1099-MISC (other than rents and royalties) should be reported on PFS Line 7T.

Important Notes

1. Do not report any amounts reported on a 1099-MISC as salary or wages, even if you earned it by working for someone as a contractor, freelancer, etc. When reporting your salary or wages, ONLY count income for which you received a W2.
2. Many schools will require you to submit a W2 as part of your financial aid application. If you didn't receive a W2 (meaning you didn't earn a salary as someone else's employee), but you did receive a 1099-MISC as a contractor or freelancer, you need to submit your 1099-MISC in place of the W2 the school requires.

Which Lines Matter for the PFS?

No questions on the PFS use information from the Form 4506T. You do not need to use this form when you're completing the PFS. However, it is sometimes required by schools so that they can access your tax information if they want to confirm that what you supplied to them is the same as what you filed with the IRS.
