DRIVERS LEADING TOWARD A REDUCTION IN STAFFING OF 3%

- State Aid not fully funded by $1 million
- Increase in tuition paid to Charter School $6,534,463 (+$372,783)(+6%)
- Cost of funding negotiated Agreements
- Dwindling reserves $768,000 less available to go toward Budget

BEYOND 2019-2020

- Less reserves expected to be available to go toward Budget
- Declining enrollment from Cranbury translates to less tuition revenue
- Uncertainty of State Aid
- Continued enrollment growth with no allowance beyond 2% increase in the local tax levy
- Need to explore other ways of doing business to maintain programs
 - Identify additional efficiencies and savings
 - Restructuring of certain functions
 - Reconsider staffing levels
 - Legislative assistance (fully fund state aid)
 - Through collective bargaining process (salary and benefits)
 - Develop additional partnerships and other sources of revenue
