Domain 1: A Data-Driven Focus on Student Achievement

1. Clear, measurable goals for overall student achievement
2. Clear, measureable goals for individual student achievement
3. Monitors progress on overall student achievement goals
4. Monitors progress on individual student achievement goals
5. Practices are in place to help all students meet achievement goals

Domain 2: Continuous Improvement of Instruction

6. Clear vision on instruction
7. Supports and retains teachers who enhance their skills
8. Awareness of predominant instructional practices
9. Ongoing evaluations with multiple data sources
10. Relevant job-embedded professional development

Domain 3: A Guaranteed and Viable Curriculum

11. Adheres to state and district curriculum standards
12. Focused curriculum
13. Students have the opportunity to learn critical content

Domain 4: Cooperation and Collaboration

14. Teachers can observe and discuss effective teaching
15. Teachers have roles in decision-making
16. Teacher teams regularly address school issues
17. Staff can provide input on school functions
18. Students, parents, and community can provide input

Domain 5: School Climate

19. Recognized leader of the school
20. Trust of faculty and staff
21. Faculty and staff perceive a safe environment
22. Students, parents, and community perceive a safe environment
23. Focus on effective instruction and student achievement
24. Acknowledges success

Domain 1: A Data-Driven Focus on Student Achievement

Clear, measurable goals for overall student achievement

The school leader ensures clear and measurable goals are established and focused on critical needs regarding improving overall student achievement at the school level.

Sample Evidences:

- Written goals are established as a percentage of students who will score at a proficient or higher level on state assessments or benchmark assessments
- School-wide achievement goals are posted and discussed regularly at faculty and staff gatherings
- Written goals are established for eliminating the achievement gap for all students
- Written goals address the most critical and severe achievement deficiencies
- Written timelines contain specific benchmarks for each goal including individual(s) responsible for the goal
- Scales are in place to chart student and school progress toward meeting the standards
- When asked, faculty and staff can explain how goals eliminate differences in achievement for students of differing ethnicities
- When asked, faculty and staff can explain how goals eliminate differences in achievement for students at different socioeconomic levels, English language learners, and students with disabilities
- When asked, faculty and staff can describe the school-wide achievement goals
- When asked, faculty and staff can identify the school's most critical needs goals

Clear, measureable goals for individual student achievement

The school leader ensures clear and measurable goals are established and focused on critical needs regarding improving achievement of individual students within the school.

Sample Evidences:

- Written goals are established for each student in terms of his/her performance on state/district assessments, benchmark assessments, or common assessments
- Written goals accompanied by proficiency scales are established for each student in terms of his/her knowledge gain

- Students keep data notebooks regarding their individual goals
- Student-led conferences focus on the individual student's goals
- Parent teacher conferences focus on the individual student's goals
- When asked, teachers can explain the learning goals of their students
- When asked, students perceive that their individual goals are academically challenging
- When asked, students are aware of their status on the achievement goals specific to them
- When asked, parents are aware of their child's achievement goals

Monitors progress on overall student achievement goals

The school leader ensures that data are analyzed, interpreted, and used to regularly monitor progress toward school achievement goals.

Sample Evidences:

- Reports, graphs, and charts are available for overall student achievement
- Student achievement is examined from the perspective of value-added results
- Results from multiple types of assessments are regularly reported and used (e.g., benchmark, common assessments)
- Reports, graphs, and charts are regularly updated to track growth in student achievement
- Achievement data for student subgroups within the school are routinely analyzed
- School leadership teams regularly analyze school growth data
- Data briefings are conducted at faculty meetings
- When asked, faculty and staff can describe the different types of reports available to them
- When asked, faculty and staff can explain how data are used to track growth in student achievement

Monitors progress on individual student achievement goals

The school leader ensures that data are analyzed, interpreted, and used to regularly monitor progress toward school achievement goals for individual students.

Sample Evidences:

- Reports, charts, and graphs are available for individual students depicting their status and growth
- Individual student achievement is examined from the perspective of value-added results
- Individual student results from multiple types of assessments are regularly reported and used (e.g., benchmark, common assessments)
- Individual student reports, graphs, and charts are regularly updated to track growth in student achievement
- Teachers regularly analyze school growth data for individual students
- School leadership teams regularly analyze individual student performance
- When asked, individual students and their parents can describe the student's achievement status and growth
- When asked, faculty can describe the different types of individual student reports available to them
- When asked, faculty and staff can analyze data of their individual students, including all subgroups

Practices are in place to help all students meet achievement goals

The school leader ensures that appropriate school-level and classroom-level programs and practices are in place to help all students meet individual achievement goals when data indicate interventions are needed.

Sample Evidences:

- Extended school day, week, or year programs are in place
- Tutorial programs are in place (during the school day and/or after school)
- Individual student completion of programs designed to enhance their academic achievement is monitored (e.g., gifted and talented, advanced placement, STEM, etc.)
- Response to intervention measures is in place
- Enrichment programs are in place
- Data are collected and available to monitor student progress and achievement as a result of enrollment in intervention or enrichment programs
- When asked, teachers can explain how interventions in place help individual students meet their goals
- When asked, student and/or parents can identify interventions in place to meet the student's goals
- When asked, students report their school has programs in place to help them meet their achievement goals

Domain 2: Continuous Improvement of Instruction

Clear vision on instruction

The school leader provides a clear vision as to how instruction should be addressed in the school.

Sample Evidences:

- A written document articulating the school-wide model of instruction is in place
- The school-wide language of instruction is used regularly by faculty in their professional learning communities and faculty and/or department meetings
- Professional development opportunities are provided for new teachers regarding the school-wide model of instruction
- Professional development opportunities are provided for all teachers regarding the school-wide model of instruction
- New initiatives are prioritized and limited in number to support the instructional model
- The school-wide language of instruction is used regularly by faculty in their informal conversations
- When asked, teachers can describe the major components of the school-wide model of instruction
- When asked, teachers can explain how strategies in the instructional framework promote learning for the school's diverse population

Supports and retains teachers who enhance their skills

The school leader effectively supports and retains teachers who continually enhance their pedagogical skills through reflection and professional growth plans.

Sample Evidences:

- Individual teachers have written pedagogical growth goals
- Individual teachers keep track of their progress on their pedagogical growth goals
- Evaluation results, growth plans, and interventions for struggling teachers are available

- Meetings are regularly scheduled with teachers regarding their growth goals and tracking of their progress
- A system is in place to effectively evaluate and revise the school's new teacher induction program
- The school leader has demonstrated a track record of hiring effective teachers
- The school leader has a track record of retaining effective teachers
- When asked, teachers can describe their progress on their pedagogical growth goals
- When asked, teachers can share documented examples of how reflection has improved their instructional practice

Awareness of predominant instructional practices

The school leader is aware of predominant instructional practices throughout the school.

Sample Evidences:

- Walk-through or other informal observation data are aggregated in such a way as to disclose predominant instructional practices in the school
- Forthright feedback is provided to teachers regarding their instructional practices
- Systems are in place to monitor the effect of the predominant instructional practices for all subgroups in the school
- Data are available to document the predominant instructional practices in the school
- The school leader can describe effective practices and problems of practice
- When asked, teachers can describe the predominant instructional practices used in the school

Ongoing evaluations with multiple data sources

The school leader ensures that teachers are provided with clear, ongoing evaluations of their pedagogical strengths and weaknesses that are based on multiple sources of data and are consistent with student achievement data.

Sample Evidences:

- Highly specific scales are in place to provide teachers accurate feedback on their pedagogical strengths and weaknesses
- Teacher feedback and evaluation data are based on multiple sources of information including but not limited to: direct observation, teacher self-report, analysis of teacher performance as captured on video, student reports on teacher effectiveness, and peer feedback to teachers
- Teacher evaluation data are regularly used as the subject of conversation between school leaders and teachers
- Data show the school leader provides frequent observations and meaningful feedback to teachers
- Ongoing data are available to support that teacher evaluations are consistent with student achievement data
- When asked, teachers can describe their instructional strategies that have the strongest and weakest relationships to student achievement

Relevant job-embedded professional development

The school leader ensures that teachers are provided with job-embedded professional development that is directly related to their instructional growth goals.

Sample Evidences:

- Online professional development courses and resources are available to teachers regarding their instructional growth goals
- The leader tracks teacher participation in professional development activities
- Teacher-led professional development is available to teachers regarding their instructional growth goals
- Instructional coaching is available to teachers regarding their instructional growth goals
- Data are collected linking the effectiveness of professional development to the improvement of teacher practices
- Data are available supporting deliberate practice in improving teacher performance
- When asked, teachers can describe how the professional development supports their attainment of instructional growth goals

Domain 3: A Guaranteed and Viable Curriculum

Adheres to state and district curriculum standards

The school leader ensures that the school curriculum and accompanying assessments adhere to state and district standards.

Sample Evidences:

- Curriculum documents are in place that correlate the written curriculum to state and district standards
- Rubrics or proficiency scales are in place that clearly delineate student levels of performance on essential elements of the state and district standards
- Information is available correlating what is taught in the classroom (i.e., the taught curriculum) and the written curriculum

- Information is available examining the extent to which assessments accurately measure the written and taught curriculums
- School teams regularly analyze the relationship between the written curriculum, taught curriculum, and assessments
- Evidence is available demonstrating the assessments are accurately measuring the state and district standards
- When asked, teachers can describe the essential content and standards for their subject area(s) or grade level(s)
- When asked, teachers demonstrate understanding of how the curriculum and assessments are aligned

Focused curriculum

The school leader ensures that the school curriculum is focused enough that it can be adequately addressed in the time available to teachers.

Sample Evidences:

- A written list of essential elements is in place
- A curriculum audit has been conducted that delineates how much time it would take to adequately address the essential elements
- Teams regularly meet to discuss the progression and viability of documents that articulate essential content and timing of delivery (e.g., pacing guides, curriculum maps)
- Time available for specific classes and courses meets the state or district specifications for those classes and courses
- Data are available to show that students are ready to be contributing members of society and participate in a global community
- A plan is in place to monitor that the curriculum is taught in the time available to teachers
- When asked, teachers can describe which elements are essential and can be taught in the scheduled time
- When asked, students report they have time to learn the essential curriculum

Students have the opportunity to learn critical content

The school leader ensures that all students have the opportunity to learn the critical content of the curriculum.

Sample Evidences:

- Tracking systems are in place that examine each student's access to the essential elements of the curriculum
- Parents are aware of their child's current access to the essential elements of the curriculum
- All students have access to advanced placement or other rigorous courses
- All students have a prescribed program of study that documents access to courses
- Data are available to show teachers have completed appropriate content area training in their subject area courses
- Data are available to verify student achievement in critical content and standards
- When asked, teachers can describe the content strategies that result in the highest student learning for specific courses and topics
- When asked, students report they have the opportunity to learn the critical content of the curriculum

Domain 4: Cooperation and Collaboration

Teachers can observe and discuss effective teaching

The school leader ensures that teachers have opportunities to observe and discuss effective teaching.

Sample Evidences:

- Teachers have opportunities to engage in instructional rounds
- Teachers have opportunities to view and discuss video-based examples of exemplary teaching
- Teachers have regular times to meet and discuss effective instructional practices (e.g., lesson study, professional learning communities)
- Teachers have opportunities to interact about effective teaching via technology
- Instructional practices are regularly discussed at faculty and department meetings
- Video segments of instructional practices are regularly viewed and discussed at faculty and department meetings
- Procedures are in place for scheduling teachers to observe and discuss effective instructional practices
- Data are available to document that teachers who participate in observational rounds improve their pedagogy
- When asked, teachers report their participation in observing other teachers results in individual self-reflection and pedagogical growth

Teachers have roles in decision-making

The school leader ensures that teachers have formal roles in the decision-making process regarding school initiatives.

Sample Evidences:

- Teachers are advised of the specific types of decisions in which they will have direct input
- Data-gathering techniques are in place to collect information from teachers
- Notes and reports are in place that describe how teacher input was used when making specific decisions
- Electronic tools are utilized to collect and report teacher opinions regarding specific decisions (e.g., online surveys)
- Groups of teachers are selected and utilized to provide input regarding specific decisions
- Teacher leaders are enabled to proactively initiate, plan, implement and monitor projects
- The school leader team has critical roles in facilitating school initiatives
- Data are available to show input is used by the school leader
- When asked, teachers report they feel their input is valued and used by the school leader

Teacher teams regularly address school issues

The school leader ensures that teacher teams and collaborative groups regularly interact to address common issues regarding curriculum, assessment, instruction, and the achievement of all students.

Sample Evidences:

- Professional learning communities (PLCs) are in place and meet regularly
- PLCs have written goals
- The school leader regularly examines the PLC's progress toward goals
- Common assessments are created by PLCs
- Student achievement and growth are analyzed by PLCs
- Data teams are in place and have written goals
- The progress of each data team toward reaching its goals is regularly examined

- To maintain a focus on student achievement, the school leader collects and reviews minutes, notes, and goals from meetings
- When asked, teachers can explain how being a member of a PLC has helped them grow their pedagogy
- When asked, teachers can explain how PLCs analyze data to identify appropriate instructional practices

Staff can provide input on school functions

The school leader ensures that teachers and staff have formal ways to provide input regarding the optimal functioning of the school and delegates responsibilities appropriately.

Sample Evidences:

- Data collection systems are in place to collect opinion data from teachers and staff regarding the optimal functioning of the school
- Data are archived and reports regularly generated regarding these data
- The manner in which data are used is made transparent
- The school improvement team provides input to the leader regarding the school improvement plan
- Appropriate faculty and staff are identified and mentored for succession planning and provided appropriate growth opportunities
- Faculty and staff are assisted with career planning and continuing educational opportunities
- Teacher leaders and other faculty are empowered to share in the leadership of the school
- Potential leaders are identified and guided in career development
- The school leader can cite examples of where teacher input has resulted in effective change at the school
- The school leader demonstrates ongoing mentoring of teacher leaders
- When asked, teachers explain formal ways they have to give input regarding optimal functioning of the school
- When asked, teachers can identify examples of when their input has resulted in effective change at the school

Focus on effective instruction and student achievement

The school leader manages the fiscal, operational, and technological resources of the school in a way that focuses on effective instruction and the achievement of all students.

Sample Evidences:

- Materials and resources for specific classes and courses meet the state or district specifications for those classes and courses
- Time available for specific classes and courses meets the state or district specifications for those classes and courses
- Detailed budgets are developed, submitted, and implemented
- The school leader successfully accesses and leverages a variety of resources (e.g., grants and local, state, and federal funds)
- Data are available to show that resources and expenditures produce results (i.e., curriculum programs improve student learning)
- The school leader manages time effectively to maximize focus on instruction
- The school leader appropriately directs the use of technology to improve teaching and learning
- Adequate training is provided for the instructional technology teachers are expected to use
- When asked, faculty and staff report they have adequate materials to teach effectively
- When asked, faculty and staff report they have adequate time to teach effectively
