ACST MISSION STATEMENT

“Opening Doors, Hearts and Minds”

ACST VISION

The American Cooperative School of Tunis (ACST) inspires a passion for learning while endowing students with the expertise and confidence necessary to pursue dreams in and for a global society.

OUR SCHOOL

ACST is a non-selective, independent, non-profit, co-educational day school, founded in 1959, which offers an educational program from pre-school - grade 12. ACST has strong links to the U.S. Embassy in Tunis and is sponsored by the Office of Overseas Schools. The Council of International Schools and the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools accredit ACST. ACST is also authorized by the International Baccalaureate Organization to offer the Diploma Program. ACST follows an English language medium curriculum. The school calendar is based on a two semester system. August is the start of school, with second semester beginning in the middle of January and school ending in June.
