

June 2019

The Nightingale-Bamford School Library Newsletter

Your monthly connection to what's new in the libraries!

New & Noteworthy

Dear Nightingale Community,

For this, our final 2018-2019 Library Newsletter, we focus on summer reading. Summer is a wonderful time to catch up on reading for pleasure. We hope that you will spend time reading aloud, reading alone, and reading with friends and family. Reading is a great way to stay connected with friends and family; share your favorites and spark conversations.

The summer reading lists are available in both web and printable formats. Lower School lists serve as a guide to help find titles to read year round. Middle and Upper School grades all have one required text and a wide selection of recommendations to peruse. Additionally, you can find our latest month-by-month book acquisitions here.

Other recommendations for summer reading opportunities:

- Visit your local branch of the New York Public Library. Explore lists and recommendations from the New York, Brooklyn, and Queens library systems.
- Read magazines, journals, and news articles on Flipster. The app features The New Yorker, The NY Review of Books, The American Poetry Review, The Atlantic, and more.
- Use Sora to access audio and ebooks. You can link your account to Nightingale and public library collections.
- Use Epic! to access a large collection of ebooks and audiobooks for grades K-6. Epic! is free for educators and features titles in English, Spanish, French, and Mandarin.
- Subscribe to Brain Pickings, an eclectic curation of cross-disciplinary essays spanning art, science, design, history, philosophy, and more.
- Check out LitHub, a great resource for literary content. The site includes excerpts from new books, literary news, and curated reviews.
- Having trouble selecting your next book? NoveList Plus is an online readers' advisory tool that provides read-alike recommendations
- Read articles in Amherst's The Common, whose mission is to publish content with a strong sense of place. You can also listen to a podcast of work by contributors.
- Asian American Writers' Workshop has wonderful articles, events, and curated lists focusing on the best in Asian American Literature today.
- Well Read Black Girl provides information about books by Black women writers and events around the country.
- Browse BookRiot for excellently curated recommendations and bookish fun. Subscribe to subject-specific newsletters and podcasts for content throughout the summer.

As always, let us know how we can support your reading lives. Happy Summer Reading!

See you in the stacks,

