

Hello Columbia Family,

I hope you're enjoying well-deserved time with your family. I'm enjoying becoming a bit more reacquainted with mine ;-).

I recently became aware of two opportunities that I felt some of you may greatly appreciate knowing about.

1. We feel a concerning issue that may be most on the increase with students nowadays is with handling stress and anxieties. This past school year we've begun an emphasis with Mindfulness and we'll continue our effort to teach these helpful skills and strategies to students next year. The Davis Mindfulness Center is offering a variety of very affordable summer classes/workshops to help families. These opportunities may have a huge positive impact on the peace and success your family can have and would go hand-in hand with our school emphasis. If you feel this would be helpful, click on this link for more information <https://mailchi.mp/9c7b1f397593/summer-offerings-at-the-davis-mindfulness-center?e=93e11d390b>.

2. This summer the Theater Department at Farmington High School is offering a summer theater camp for students headed into 4th-9th grades. See the attachment if you'd like more information. See below if you'd like more information.

FYI, the school office will be open most Tuesdays from 9-1 throughout the summer weeks.

Until August 20th,

Mr. Denhalter
