

Become an Advocate for Troy Youth and Families

Troy Youth Assistance is a 501(c) (3) nonprofit organization committed to strengthening youth and families by preventing and reducing juvenile delinquency, child neglect and child abuse through community involvement. It is one of 26 Youth Assistance programs in Oakland County, tri-sponsored by the Oakland County Circuit Court-Family Division, the Troy School District, and the City of Troy. The Oakland County Board of Commissioners provides major funding for a professional counselor in each unit. Volunteers work with the professional counselor to plan and sponsor local prevention programs for youth and their families.

- Troy Youth Assistance offers workshops and programs which focus on improving parent-child relationships, understanding child development, enhancing parenting skills, managing family technology, and peer pressure.
- We match adult volunteers, one-to-one, with youth ages 5 to 16.
- Troy Youth Assistance provides scholarships to youth who would benefit from positive learning experiences designed to enhance their self-esteem or to develop a specific skill.
- Youth, with adult guidance, participate in projects to interact positively with one another and their community.
- Annually, Troy Youth Assistance recognizes young people in Troy who make positive contributions to their community. Nominations come from schools, churches, fire and police departments, and private citizens who have made note of community service, heroic actions, or personal achievements which should be recognized.
