

Dear Parents or Guardians:

Please encourage your child to read 20-minutes a day all summer long. We partner with the Princeton Public Library and recommend all students register for "A Universe of Stories," the 2019 Youth Summer Reading Program.

Appreciatively,

English Department
John H. Witherspoon Middle School

Questions students can expect to see from their teachers upon their return from summer vacation

Fiction:

1. Was there one character similar to you in any book? Would the story be different if you were the main character?
2. Discuss one memorable moment of the story? Why is it memorable?
3. What was one major theme you recognized in any book?

Nonfiction:

1. What is something new that you learned? Please explain why it is significant to you.
2. Did any new information surprise you? Please explain that surprise and how it added to your knowledge of the subject.
3. Did anything change, challenge or confirm what you already knew? Please explain.

(Students: Return this completed paper to your English teacher during the first week of school.)
