

Forensic Psychiatry Levels of Care
procedure	level of care	supervision	Milestone	Competency
▪ Complete a scholarly review of the literature concerning forensic-based cases and landmark cases or submit an IRB protocol for implementation	5/6	Direct	ICS1	ICS
▪ Be able to apply all diagnostic categories of psychiatric illness to individuals involved with the legal system	5/6	Indirect	MK2	MK
▪ Demonstrate competency in applying general psychiatric knowledge to questions posed in legal proceedings	5/6	Indirect	MK1	MK
▪ Prepare for the subspecialty board certification exam	5/6	Oversight	PROF2	PROF
▪ Be able to complete psychiatric evaluations of individuals involved with the legal system	5/6	Direct	MK2	MK
▪ Perform forensic evaluations of a variety of subjects of both genders, including adolescent, adult, and geriatric age groups, who represent a broad range of mental disorders and circumstances, in both civil and criminal contexts	5/6	Direct	PC1/2	PC
▪ Be able to complete consultations on behalf of third parties such as employers or insurance companies	5/6	Indirect	PC1/2	PC
▪ Be able to perform specialized psychiatric treatment required by individuals who have been incarcerated in jails, prisons, or special forensic psychiatric hospitals	5/6	Indirect	PC1/2	PC
▪ Treat persons involved in the criminal justice system	5/6	Indirect	PC1/2	PC
▪ Consult to general psychiatric services on issues related to the legal regulation of psychiatric practice, such as civil commitment, confidentiality, making competence, guardianship, refusal of treatment, etc	5/6	Indirect	PC1/2	PC
▪ Critically evaluate the landmark cases	5/6	Direct	PBL1	PBL
▪ Videotape/audiotape or perform an interview in front of faculty for critique and constructive criticism	5/6	Direct	PBL1	PBL
▪ Apply evidence-based medicine to questions posed in legal proceedings	5/6	Indirect	PBL1	PBL
▪ Access and use medical and legal on-line reference services	5/6	Oversight	PBL1	PBL
▪ Communicate results of forensic assessments effectively to attorneys and judges	5/6	Direct	ICS2	ICS

▪ Understand when and how to initiate a legal consultation	5/6	Direct	SBP3	SBP
▪ Present forensic cases of interest to general psychiatry residents	5/6	Indirect	PBLI2/ICS2	PBL, ICS
▪ Communicate well with staff, patients, patients' parents, judges, lawyers, caregivers, and peers	5/6	Indirect	ICS1	ICS
▪ Evaluate pre- and post-trial individuals for attorneys and the courts	5/6	Direct	PC2/MK1	PC, MK
▪ Utilize appropriate community resources for individuals transitioning from the correctional system	5/6	Indirect	SBP1	SBP
▪ Consult with community agencies concerning resources for a variety of subjects of both genders, including adolescent, adult, and geriatric age groups, who represent a broad range of mental disorders and circumstances, in both civil and criminal contexts	5/6	Indirect	SBP2	SBP
▪ Consider obstacles in community placement that would lead to recidivism	5/6	Oversight	SBP2	SBP
▪ Participate in regional, state or national mental health organizations	5/6	Oversight	PROF2	PROF
▪ Submit forensic evaluations in a timely manner	5/6	Direct	ICS2	ICS
▪ Demonstrate knowledge of self-limitations and seek constructive criticism	5/6	Indirect	PBLI1	PBL
▪ Accomplish timely completion of paperwork	5/6	Indirect	ICS2	ICS
▪ Respect diversity of culture, gender, and race in adolescent, adult, and geriatric age groups, in both civil and criminal contexts	5/6	Oversight	PROF1	PROF
▪ Gives informal and formal didactic presentations to groupgs (e.g., grand rounds, case conference, journal club)	5/6	Indirect/Oversight	PBLI2	PBL