

Looking for a counselor in Whatcom County?

There is a more efficient way to find a counselor with openings and that takes your type of family insurance....read on!

You can call the secretary of any of these mental health agencies to talk to them directly about what type of insurance you currently have, what type of counseling or counselor you are seeking, AND find out who has openings and how soon. If no counselor has openings, you can ask to be put onto a waiting list and will be called when that happens. Feel free to click on each title to explore their website.
