

- Intervention Central : Intervention Central provides teachers, schools and districts with free resources to help struggling learners and implement Response to Intervention and attain the Common Core State Standards.
- Do2Learn : Do2Learn provides free pages with social skills and behavioral regulation activities and guidance, learning songs and games, communication cards, academic material, and transition guides for employment and life skills.
- Ability Tools : Ability Tools is California's Assistive Technology Act Program. They provide a variety of services for Californians with disabilities of all ages including:
 - Assistive Technology (AT) Exchange marketplace
 - Device Lending Libraries
 - Financial loan program for AT
 - Information & Referral
 - Reuse program in affiliation with organizational partners
- How to Learn: How to Learn provides testing and resources for helping identify your child's best learning style. They provide resources to assist with various subject areas such as reading and math.
- Early Start : Early Start is California's response to federal legislation ensuring that early intervention services to infants and toddlers with disabilities and their families are provided in a coordinated, family-centered system of services that are available statewide.
- California Department of Developmental Affairs : The California Department of Developmental Affairs is the agency through which the State of California provides services and supports to individuals with developmental disabilities. INcluded are links to more resources and lists of available resources by region.
- Council for Exceptional Children : The Council for Exceptional Children is a professional association of educators dedicated to advancing the success of children with exceptionalities. There are a number of informational resources including other resources for learning more about students with special needs.
- Center for Parent Information and Resources : The Center for Parent Information and Resources is a central resource of information and products to the community of Parent Training Information (PTI) Centers and the Community Parent Resource Centers (CPRCs), so that they can focus their efforts on serving families of children with disabilities. Click on the link if you would like to get connected with a network or learn more about the various resources that a PTI.
- LD Online : LD OnLine seeks to help children and adults reach their full potential by providing accurate and up-to-date information and advice about learning disabilities and ADHD.

- SEN Teacher : SEN Teacher is a resource hub for all types and levels of special and remedial education needs including printouts, software downloads, and links to other resources.
- National Center for Learning Disabilities : The National Center for Learning Disabilities seeks to improve the lives of children and adults with learning and attention issues.
- Understood.com : Understood is a resource site for parents providing advice and useful tips on how to advocate for your child with special needs, or to assist in your child's development at home.
- Parents Helping Parents : Parents Helping Parents is a community-based organization that provides information, training, and support services for families who have children with special needs.
- California Department of Education : Department website with resources and support for parents, guardians, and families of children with special needs.
- Kids Together : Kids Together is a resource website that provides information and assistance for children and adults with special needs.
- Special Education Guide : The Special Education Guide provides a list of organizations and websites to provide you with more information on a special education or disability topic. Including links regarding:
 - Support Organizations for Families
 - Assistive Technology
 - Learning Disabilities
 - Attention Deficit Disorder/Attention-Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder
 - Emotional and Behavioral Disorders
 - Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities
 - Autism Spectrum Disorder/Pervasive Development Disorder
 - Communication Disabilities
 - Visual Impairment
 - Brain/Spinal Cord Injury
 - Teacher Resources and;
 - Legal/Advocacy Information and Resources
- Have Fun Teaching : Have Fun Teaching is a website that provides free and pay-to-use teaching resources that are Common Core Aligned.
- Jill Kuzma : Jill is a Speech-Language Pathologist who works full-time with elementary-age students on the autism spectrum. She created her own blog/website to help others work with students with special needs at home and in the classroom. Her resource page provides a number of links that can help parents and teachers alike in learning more about learning disabilities and possible resources/interventions.