Camp Description: Our 24th Annual Hanford Hoops Camp offers five days of basketball and learning in a positive and energetic setting. The key element of our camp this summer improving your FUNDAMENTAL SKILLS. We will be working with all players on their shooting technique, various types of shots, various types of offensive moves, and drills they can do on their own to improve their shooting. We will also be helping players with their dribbling and passing skills as well as a huge amount of other things to help them improve their game. The key to future success is not just in playing games, but improving your fundamental skills. We promise a great week of fun, games, contests, and fundamental drills!
