ANNOUNCEMENT

The Carmel Clay School Board voted to hire Dr. Rhonda Peterson as the district's new Director of Curriculum, Instruction and Assessment. Peterson will replace Dr. Martha McFarland, who retired in April 2019. Dr. Peterson will begin the position July 1, 2019.

Dr. Peterson's role will focus on working collaboratively with administrators, teachers, staff and other stakeholders to ensure academic growth for all CCS students. She will research, plan, develop, implement and evaluate K-12 curriculum and instruction to ensure that it is rigorous and responsive to students' needs.

WORKSHOP TOPIC

The CCS Rebranding Team, comprised of five Carmel High School DECA students, presented their eight potential taglines for Carmel Clay Schools. The CCS Rebranding Team engaged the CCS School Board Members through a guided exercise and discussion to select the final three taglines. The final three taglines for continued discussion are: Find Your Future, Together We Achieve, and Excel Without Limits. The CCS Rebranding Team will now take these taglines to a graphic designer who will work alongside CCS art students to design a new logo for the district.

Key Presenters at the Board Workshop were:

- Hirnay Sharma, CHS Senior, DECA Member
- Thomas Dziwlik, CHS Senior, DECA President
- Reagan Markland, CHS Senior, DECA Vice President
