

KING'S MAGNA SUMMER 30-DAY CHALLENGES

Over the summer holiday, your extra mission, should you chose to take it, is to complete one whole set of 30-day challenges from this booklet.

We hope you find the challenges listed both beneficial and rewarding, as well as memorable. The challenges should all be possible with little or no input from adults, and with little or no resources.

If your parents or siblings want to join in, then all the better!

Make sure you record your 30-day challenges in some way - a PowerPoint, a sketchbook, a photo album - the King's Magna team would love to see them in September and you will earn yourself a 30-day challenge certificate.

30 DAY WRITING CHALLENGE

30 different ideas to develop your writing and use your imagination.

Day 1: Select a book at random in the room. Copy down the last sentence and use this line as the first line of your new story.

Day 2: Tell about a character who lost something important to him/her.

Day 3: Write about your earliest memory.

Day 4: Write a story to include the line, "Sorry, we can't insure you for a journey like that."

Day 5: Pick a letter of the alphabet. Now imagine two aisles of your local supermarket. List everything found in those two aisles that begin with that letter of the alphabet.

Day 6: Write about a person who would buy all of those items in Day 5.

Day 7: What sets you apart from the crowd?

Day 8: What are the five things that make you most happy right now?

Day 9: What was your favourite childhood toy?

Day 10: What do you want to be remembered for?

Day 11: What was your first childhood pet?

Day 12: What is your favourite day of the week?

Day 13: If you could travel back in time, what year would you go to and why?

Day 14: What's your favourite number and why?

Day 15: Create a character who is falsely accused of a crime.

Day 16: If we assume ghosts are real, what type of ghost would you like to see?

Day 17: Write a short scenario set in the kitchen of a fast-food restaurant.

Day 18: Take a reader behind the wheel with the worst driver you've ever known.

Day 19: Write a list of 10 things you want to do in your life.

Day 20: If you could go on only one more vacation in your lifetime, where would you go and why?

Day 21: Find a job advertisement. Write about your life if you had that job.

Day 22: You wake up with a key gripped tightly in your hand. How did you get this key? What does it lock or unlock?

Day 23: Pretend you're a cartoon character. What would a day in your life be like?

Day 24: Write about the longest amount of time you've ever gone without sleeping.

Day 25: Write a story about 'What the Neighbours Saw.'

Day 26: Write about your worst habit.

Day 27: Make up a near-death experience (unless you have a real one).

Day 28: You read about yourself in your brother/sister, girlfriend/boyfriend's diary. What did you read?

Day 29: You are at a cemetery reading gravestones. Write about one of the people you find.

Day 30: Write a short entry that ends with the line, "The silver dust of moonlight settled coldly on the night."
