
July News: Growing Great Minds at Assets School

Leadership Transitions

July 1st marks the beginning of some very exciting transitions within Assets School. Ryan Masa will assume the role as the new Head of School and Caitlin Mates will be the new K-8 Principal. Paul Singer will transition to the Head of School Emeritus through June 30, 2020.

Board of Trustees: New Members

Please give a warm welcome to our two new Board of Trustees members, Gary Hogan and Greg Sato!

As a second-generation leader of the Hogan Family Enterprise, Gary is the Chief Executive Officer of Hogan Hospitality Group, Hawaiian Hotels and Resorts, and Royal Pacific Air. At Chaminade, he founded the Hogan Entrepreneurs Program in 2001 to promote the entrepreneurial spirit through education.

Greg is a Labor and Employment Law partner at Kobayashi Sugita & Goda law firm. He is a Director with the Hawaii Food Bank, a Director for Hanahau'oli School, and a Hearing Officer with the Hawaii Office of Disciplinary Counsel.

Gary and Greg will join Assets current Board of Trustees, which is representative of the student body's diversity, talent, and reach across Hawaii. A list of Trustees can be found at <https://www.assets-school.org/about/board-of-trustees>.

"We are excited to welcome Gary and Greg to our Board of Trustees. Each brings a wealth of business experience to our leadership team and will be vigorous advocates of our vision of aspiring to a community in which all children thrive and realize their own potential," said Ryan Masa, new Head of School.
