

Friends of the Library The International Academy

What is the Friends of the Library (FLIA)?

It is a non-profit organization formed by concerned parents to support the Media Center at the International Academy.

What does the FLIA do?

We support the expansion of the Media Center through three main activities

1. We promote participation of volunteers to assist in daily library activities.
2. We sponsor fund raising activities to supplement the school budget to help purchase needed library materials.
3. We acquire needed materials through donations or book sales.

Membership Benefits – (The membership year runs from August, 2019 to June, 2020)

As a member of FLIA you will receive:

- Library updates by email from the IA librarian
- Library circulation privileges (no card needed –you will automatically be entered into our computer system)
- A bookplate, honoring your family, in a new book purchased with your donation
