JUNIOR COUGAR BOYS BASKETBALL CAMP

East High Boys Basketball Coaches & Players
4 Sessions – Grades 1-6

The emphasis of the clinic will be placed on ball handling, dribbling, pivoting, passing, and one-on-one moves, perimeter shots, and free throws. The entire objective of the program is to introduce the boys to the correct fundamentals used in the game of basketball. The clinic offers little opportunity in playing real games. In the time allotted for the program, our coaching staff feels it is more important to spend the time teaching proper individual techniques. Members of the Cougar coaching staff will be present at the sessions with the varsity and junior varsity players demonstrating and teaching. We look forward to helping your son get a healthy introduction or progressing further in his current understanding of basketball and love of the game.

FIVE PRESIDENTS AT THE OLD LOG THEATRE

FIVE PRESIDENTS brings us back 25 years into the Executive Board room at the Nixon Library on April 27, 1994. It is the day of Richard Nixon's funeral and a historic occasion that brought the five living presidents, four exes and one current, together to mourn, honor, and discuss one of our history's most controversial political figures. This is a fictional take of what Gerald Ford, Jimmy Carter, Ronald Reagan, George H.W. Bush, and Bill Clinton might have discussed while gathered prior to the service. Maybe some soul-searching among great men so rarely together, or, would these leaders of the free world prefer banter, small talk, jokes, or petty bickering?
