

FREDERICKSBURG ACADEMY

FALCON CLUB

Position Title: Falcon Club – Morning and/or Afternoon Assistants

Fredericksburg Academy Mission & Overview:

Mission: We inspire and empower our students to discover, to engage, and to imagine the limitless nature of themselves and the world.

Overview: Fredericksburg Academy (FA), located halfway between Richmond, VA and Washington, D.C., provides a rigorous, college-preparatory education in a nurturing environment to 375 students in prekindergarten through twelfth grade. Hallmarks of the Academy experience are individualized attention, unique opportunities outside of the classroom, and small class sizes. Founded in 1992, the Academy challenges each student to achieve academic excellence, to think critically and independently, to communicate effectively, and to act honorably. Our close-knit, supportive community of teachers, administrators, students and parents is welcoming and engaging.

Department Overview:

FA's Auxiliary Programs consist of CampFA, Talon Tutoring, Enrichment, and Falcon Club. Falcon Club is FA's before- and after-school program and is a welcoming place for prekindergarten through eighth grade students to begin their school day and a place for continued learning after school. Every afternoon, students in Falcon Club will enjoy snack, time for homework, indoor recess, crafts, physical activities, reading, and engaging STEM-based activities. Falcon Club is open on all regular days of the school year. Before-school Care begins at 6:30 a.m. and runs until the school day begins at 8:30 a.m. After-school Care begins at the end of the school day, 3:30 p.m., and concludes at 6:30 p.m.
