

CCP Probation

A student is placed on CCP Probation when the student:

- Has earned lower than a cumulative 2.0 GPA in college courses, or
- Withdraws from two or more courses in same term

When on CCP Probation, the student:

- May enroll in no more than one college course
- May not enroll in the college course in the same subject area in which student previously earned D or F
- Student remains on probation until student has improved cumulative college GPA to 2.0 or higher

Underperforming Student Rule

CCP Dismissal

- A student is placed on CCP Dismissal when the student has met the definition of CCP Probation for two consecutive college terms.
- Once a student is dismissed from the CCP program, the student may not enroll in college courses for the following college term.
- After one college term on dismissal, the student may request secondary school and the secondary shall determine whether the student may continue on dismissal, move to probation, or participate without restrictions per the school's adopted policy.

Student Appeals

A student who has been dismissed from the CCP program has the right to appeal to status.

- Students/parents, secondary schools, and colleges/universities must review entire rule for details related to course restrictions and dis-enrollments, policy development, counseling sessions, advising.
- Actions required by secondary school must be taken by the parent of the homeschooled student. See rule for details on compliance, funding, and payment responsibilities.
- This rule does not alter, supersede, or affect any college/university policy/procedure on academic probation or dismissal.
- Rule takes effect summer term of 2018-2019 academic year. Rule will be reviewed on bi-annual basis.
