

Portrait of a St. Mark's Graduate

A St. Mark's graduate is a mindful, active learner who embraces the challenges of a robust educational experience and is ethically and spiritually motivated to make a positive contribution to the community and the world.

..... ALUMNI NOTES, continued

 Gregory Dayao ('14) has recently earned his Eagle Scout after serving as Senior Patrol Leader during the past school year at St. John's School.

 Jane Hayes ('08) was recently accepted to Washington University in St. Louis (ranked in the top 10 medical schools in the country) with a full merit scholarship for medical school. Jane obtained her undergraduate degree from the University of Texas at Austin and completed the Education Program for Gifted Youth at Stanford University.

 Blake Hetherington ('14) is interning with ViaJiyu in its Young Trailblazer program in Florence, Italy for the summer. She is working on digital marketing and working under a female entrepreneur learning the business. A student of HSPVA, with a concentration in voice, she is able to gain experience with Italian and voice while she is there. On the weekend, if she doesn't have to work, she is traveling with a student group from Florence and having a fantastic time!

 Sam Shapiro ('14) a member of Troop 211 of St. Mark's, completed his Eagle Project and earned the rank of Eagle Scout this summer. His project was the upgrade of the Bishop High Skeet Range at Camp Allen, building new handicap friendly shooting cages, building the retaining wall for a new covered range structure and building a centralized gun rack.

Left: Aubrey Bryan, Class of 2013, poses with classmates during her University of Miami Summer Scholars Program; John Clarke, Class of 2010, poses with Congressman Steve Scalise