

The St. Mark's Class of 2020 delivered beautiful artwork to the cardiology clinic at Ben Taub Hospital as a student-imagined and led outreach project this spring. While at the hospital, there was an emergency that required a lock down. Students remained safely secured within the cardiology clinic for the duration of the event. Our 5th grade students were respectful, polite, and quiet during the entirety of the situation.

