

ALUMNI NOTES

 Michael Artlip, '16, competed in the Junior Olympic National Championships for Men's Gymnastics in May, where he placed in the top 5 on vault, and in the Top 15 in the All-Around for the nation! At the Texas State Championships, he placed 1st on floor exercise; 2nd on parallel bars, high bar and vault; and 3rd on pommel horse, and placed 2nd in the All-Around for the state. He was also named an Academic All-American by USA Gymnastics based on his high school GPA. Michael currently attends Strake Jesuit.

and has been accepted to the Honors College at The University of Alabama and will receive a National Merit Finalist Scholarship package there. She will be majoring in International Relations and English with a minor in Spanish, and plans on attending law school.

 Catch Gregory Dayao, '14, this summer at HMNS, where he is serving as a volunteer coordinator before taking off for Edinburgh, Scotland for Mechanical Engineering Honors program. He also served as the Captain of the Golf Team this past year at St. John's.

 Congrats to Lana Elserag, '14, who recently graduated from Carnegie Vanguard High School. She served as the Amnesty International President at CVHS, and recently won a "best speaker" at Texas Junior State of America (Junior Government) competition. Lana is attending UT Austin in the fall.

 We are excited to recognize Ryan Fulghum, '14, who recently graduated from Episcopal High School. In addition to being in National Honor Society, National Spanish Honor Society, and graduating Summa Cum Laude, he was recognized as Outstanding Male Student at EHS. Wow, Ryan!

 Congrats to Sam Shapiro, '14 who will attend Louisiana State University in the fall, where he will be on a full scholarship to Ogden
