

A Community Touched

"To give 34 years of your life to anything demonstrates a special kind of dedication.

Dorinda Howard was a steward of intellectual curiosity and cultivated growth in generations of St. Mark's students, never thinking of herself, always looking for ways to serve her students' learning. Christa McAuliffe said, "I touch the future. I teach." Today, the community of St. Mark's is living in a future that Dorinda touched."

-Garhett Wagers

Dorinda Howard at her desk in 1987

