

Fine Arts

At St. Mark's, we seek to inspire creativity, curiosity, and playfulness in a child-centered environment. Our fine arts classes are filled with joyful experiences, where students can express themselves in various forms. Students are engaged and excited when they walk into art and music as they enter a space where imagination and innovation are encouraged.

Sebastian Winkelmayer, '22, performs during the Talent Show