

volunteered in the educational and political space for over 20 years – dedicating time to leading children’s reading programs, developing youth into future leaders and engaging all aspects of society via economic, political, and equal access programs. He was the lead coordinator for a youth development group for over 10 years. Richard resides in Houston with his husband, Mark.

Julie Kinzelman

Julie Kinzelman and her husband, Christopher Tribble, have twins, Calder and Mia, who are rising 7th graders at St. Mark’s. In 2000 Julie Kinzelman established Kinzelman Art Consulting recognizing the need to provide comprehensive arts management services to a growing clientele in the state of Texas. Since that time, Kinzelman Art has provided arts management services beyond the state of Texas and extending into a global marketplace. Throughout her 27 year career, Julie has curated and managed collections for both private collectors and Fortune 100 and 500 companies. Prior to establishing Kinzelman Art, Julie was a Partner at Carey Ellis Company, an art advisory firm where she managed two US offices and multiple large-scale corporate art collections for six years. She has lectured extensively about the art market, volunteered her time for various arts organizations and continues to serve on the board of directors for multiple organizations in Houston.

Departing Trustees

On behalf of the entire St. Mark’s community, we extend our deepest thanks to the following trustees who are rolling off of the board this year. We are extremely grateful for their unwavering support, counsel, and service to our school.

Ali Dodson, Jeff Van Gundy, Kelly Bourgeois (Vestry Representative), and Charlene Coddington (Parent Guild Representative)
