

KANE COUNTY JUVENILE JUSTICE COUNCIL

Helpful Hints for Parents

Monitoring

- Know your child's friends & their parents
- Gather details about where your child will be when they leave the house
- Use tracking apps
- Check cell phones for appropriate usage
- Search rooms for contraband
- Verify your child's reported location

Trust but Verify

Accountability

- Provide realistic expectations
- Hold youth accountable to correct inappropriate behavior
- Reinforce good behavior
- Maintain consistency

Firm but Fair

Internet Safety

- Talk about appropriate internet usage
- Know what your child is doing online
- Require disclosure of passwords and usernames to social media accounts
- Check search histories
- Remind child about the lack of privacy on the internet
- Learn how to use the social media outlets

Privacy is a Privilege

Stay Informed

- Encourage your child to share about what is going on in their lives
- Challenge discrepancies and gather evidence to confirm reports
- Research current trends among youth
- Maintain communication with other supports (school, coaches, etc.)
